MP must clear Public Road blocked by Railways: MLA

When Rly. officials become unreasonable, MP should approach the Minister

Pratap Simha Tanveer Sait

Mysuru, July 3 (MTY,RK& BCT)- A two-furlong stretch of a public road that has been blocked by the Railways near the Ring Road on the Hazrath Gumnam Shahwali Dargah Road at Bannimantap has led to a lot of inconvenience to truck and lorry owners. This also has increased the movement of heavy vehicles that ply in break-neck speed on the Jodi Thenginamara Road leading to accidents and deaths.

The vexed issue was brought to the notice of Mysuru District Minister G.T. Devegowda yesterday while he was on city rounds by Narasimharaja MLA Tanveer Sait. Responding to the MLA, the Minister assured the MLA that he will take up the issue with Minister of State for Railways Suresh Angadi.

On his part, MLA Tanveer Sait told Star of Mysore this morning that though many futile meetings have taken place in this regard, he will once again soon meet MP Pratap Simha and Mysuru Divisional Railway Manager Aparna Garg and solve the issue. "The onus is on MP Pratap Simha to get the road cleared," he added.

The road provides a direct connection between Railway Goods Shed and the Ring Road. As the road is blocked by the Railways, trucks are using Jodi Thenginamara Road, leading to frequent road blocks and accidents on that stretch due to the constant movement of heavy vehicles and other small vehicles.

Consequences to Ignoring Consequences

Actions of Governments, both at the Centre and in the States as well as Union Territories, when recorded, amount to a virtual cornucopia of Acts, Rules and Regulations, bulging all the time, thanks to the amendments to the respective laws by way of course correction. Even the country's Constitution, portrayed as the world's most voluminous, consisting of scores of Articles and Schedules, has witnessed more than 100 amendments since it was bestowed the status of an official document on Jan. 26, 1950. The nation's Judiciary is vested with the onerous responsibility of ensuring compliance of the stipulations therein by both administration and the rest of stockholders and stakeholders in the wide area of governance of the land and its citizens, virtually holding the Executive wing on leash. In the backdrop of action by the administration and reaction in various circles of the country's diaspora, the question that arises is: Have the powers that be visualised the consequences of every action, including the policies spelt often, and more importantly, the fallout of ignoring the consequences as they become reality.

Every action has an equal and opposite reaction, according to Newton's third law of motion. Reaction and response to any action, particularly when the action is caused by the Government, are in different nature of consequences, one with undertones of angst and the other with overtones of falling in line. Problems arise in instances of over-reaction resulting in unpleasant consequences that require anticipation and attention to restore equilibrium.

The land's media seems to be active 24x7 reporting episodes of the people protesting one or the other policy by the Government of the day and its implementation by following ways consistent with the provisions made in the nation's Constitution, often disrupting order in public domain, apart from causing hardship to sections of society not concerned with the various causes for pursuit of which the protests are staged. However, the many all-too-familiar cases of the Government embarking on grandiose projects, or ostensibly for development of specific regions, resulting in shrinking green cover in living spaces, splurging public funds on frivolous programmes and so on, resulting in undesirable consequences seem to be ignored by the administration more often than not.

The message in the quote There are consequences to ignoring consequences, attributed to a seasoned counsellor, which merits to be pondered by the law-makers is only an extension of Newton's postulate in the sense that many consequences of action by the Government are not just opposite but much more than equal to action.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Anyone who has ever bought a plant from a nursery, watered it every day and watched in dismay as it failed to thrive, knows that gardening isn't easy. Even if you manage to grow a plant successfully, growing food is another ballgame altogether. Vegetables such as bitter gourd and tomato grow almost like weeds, but others are trickier. They have varied water needs, soil requirements and temperature and sunlight preferences. In the event you get all of this right, you still need to protect them from pests. Finally, after weeks or months of care and patience, your plants may yield just a few kilograms of vegetables. — Vidula Chopra Rastogi in The Hindu.

Tiny lizard living in patient's ear

Bangkok: A young doctor at at Rajavithi Hospital in Bangkok will remember her first day as a doctor at Rajavithi Hospital in Bangkok for a very long time after she found a live gecko in a patient's ear.

25-year-old Varanya Ngan-thavee, the young doctor, recently posted her unusual experience on Facebook. She had nearly finished her first day on the job when a patient walked in complaining of an ear ache that had been pestering him for two days. Using an otoscope to inspect the ear canal, as is routine, Varanya was shocked to see something moving inside. She dripped some antibiotic drops into the man's ear and asked him to tilt his head hoping that whatever bug had crawled inside the year would get out by itself. That didn't happen, so a nurse had to use tweezers to yank it out. Only it wasn't an insect, but a small gecko lizard commonly known as Jing Jok in Thailand.

Historical clothing buff shuns modern fashion

Brighton: A tailor from Brighton, in the UK, has stopped wearing modern clothes over a decade ago and has been wearing elegant Regency-period costumes ever since.

Zack Pinsent, the 25-year-old tailor claims he never enjoyed wearing modern clothes and was always fascinated by the elegant fashion of Britain's Regency Era and other historical styles going back to the 1600s. He taught himself how to make the clothes he dreamed of wearing and once he became good enough at it, he decided to cut modern clothes from his life forever. The talented tailor remembers ceremoniously burning his last pair of jeans at age 14 as a turning point that changed his life. Dressing as a Regency Era gentleman every day gave him a huge confidence boost, and he wouldn't dream of going back to regular clothing.

VOICE OF THE READER

Ordeal of elderly women at Kukkarahalli Lake

Sir,

A walk around the Kukkarahalli Lake is a unique experience for anyone who lives in Mysuru or visits this beautiful city. The tranquil Lake, with such soothing greenery all around it, the melodious chirping of birds both big and small, filling the environs of the Lake, is definitely an experience everybody should enjoy.

Being in Mysuru for the past 25 years and that too living close to the Lake, we had gone for an evening walk along with my sister (who's on a visit) and my friend, entering the Lake from the University side. We thoroughly enjoyed our walk but were in for a rude shock when returning to see the gate locked!

On looking around for someone to open the gate for us, we were left helpless as there was no one in charge. We had no other choice but to jump down the parapet and crawl through the fence with barbed wire, which was a really scary experience and tiring too — considering that all of us are senior citizens, with my sister being 74 years of age! Additionally she is a diabetic — so what if the barbed wire had hurt her?! The three young ladies who were in front of us were very thoughtful, waited with us and gave us a helping hand and along with a few other people present there we managed to squeeze through the fence.

May I request the authorities concerned to put up a board, clearly stating the time that the gates will be locked on both sides, so that no other person has to go through this harrowing experience. Another suggestion is that the Security in-charge of the Lake makes sure that people are not locked inside, thereby avoiding distress.

Retail stores outnumber wholesale shops at Bandipalya APMC Yard

A view of APMC Market at Bandipalya in city.

Mysuru, July 3 (MK&DM)- The steady increase in the number of grain shops doing retail business has become a cause of serious concern for wholesale traders at APMC Yard in Bandipalya. So much so that people are flocking to retail shops in hordes while there are very few takers for wholesale shops.

As per APMC Act, traders are required to purchase crops, grains, millets, cereals, etc. from farmers and sell them to consumers at wholesale rates. But in the APMC Yard, it has become just the opposite with retail outlets outnumbering wholesale shops.

Some wholesale traders have complained to the authorities about mushrooming of retail shops, provision and Kirana stores where items like beverages, cool drinks and fruit juices are being sold. These retail shops are said to have obtained licence for wholesale trading but the ground situation is otherwise.

Provision stores have begun to dot the APMC Yard with only a few shops doing wholesale trade for which the APMC is meant for. As most of the articles are being sold at MRP rates at the provision stores in APMC Yard, one can see no difference between a general market and the APMC.

While space at APMC Market are let out for the actual purpose of doing wholesale trading, the ground scenario seems otherwise with some traders, who are allotted space, utilising it to construct shops and letting them out for rent. This has resulted in loss for APMC as those who have rented out their shops do not pay turnover tax of 1.5 percent, say wholesale traders.

Lack of infrastructure and amenities

There are hundreds of shops in APMC doing business worth crores of rupees every day. But the huge premises is found wanting in toilets, drinking water and other civic amenities. Also, there is no proper waste disposal mechanism and as a result, heaps of waste and garbage are found in the premises almost everywhere. The APMC is also found lacking in hygiene, in the absence of a regular waste collection system.

Burglary menace

As per the APMC Act, the market is closed on Sundays. But some of the shops are seen open on Sundays too and this has become advantageous for burglars to loot other shops in the vicinity, according to some wholesale traders.

APMC Secretary T.C. Girish says that fruits and vegetable business generally takes place on Sundays and there is no restriction for this. The APMC authorities have been telling other shop owners not to open on Sundays.

As far as burglaries are concerned, there is round-the-clock security at the Yard and measures have been taken to prevent burglaries, he said. But a few thefts are reported late in the night and the APMC is taking steps to prevent these too. Also, shop owners doing retail trading have been asked to stop the practice and do only wholesale business, he added.

Eight shops burgled at APMC Yard

Mysuru, July 3- Contrary to the claims of round-the-clock security at APMC Yard at Bandipalya, four shops were burgled last night and attempts were made to loot four other shops. The incident has worried the trading community.

Shutters have been pried open in the four shops on Bandipalya Second Cross B-Block and the incident came to light this morning when traders came to the shops as per their daily routine.

Traders said that the heavy iron shutters have been opened by force and they have suspected the involvement of a couple of criminals as it is not possible for two or three persons to do the task.

Regarding the cash and valuables stolen, traders said that cash was stolen from all the four shops.

Mysuru South Police have registered a case in this regard.

Balamuri, Edamuri Cauvery barriers turning into

DEATH TRAPS

106 tourists killed in the last 14 years

Balamuri

Edamuri

By Vinay Karekura

Srirangapatna, July 3- The scenic Balamuri and Edamuri tourist spots, about three kilometres from Belagola in Srirangapatna taluk where River Cauvery flows, most of the times with turbulence, are becoming death traps with the number of tourists drowning increasing by the day.

It may be recalled here that two girls, employees of a private company in Mysuru, who had come on a trip to Edamuri, drowned on June 30.

Balamuri is a popular picnic spot where tourists and local people go there to spend time with their family and friends. The waterfall, over the years, has gained notoriety of being a death trap. More than 12 persons have drowned at Balamuri and Edamuri between January and June this year. In the past 14 years (2006 to 2019 till June), a total of 106 persons have lost their lives (See table).

YEAR	No. OF DEATHS
2006	5
2007	9
2008	9
2009	Not available
2010	8
2011	11
2012	8
2013	7
2014	15
2015	8
2016	4
2017	9
2018	1
2019 till June 30	12
TOTAL	106

The Balamuri waterfall is scenic and artificial waterfall created because of the construction of a concrete barrier across Cauvery. When water is released from the KRS dam, it forms a beautiful sight. When water is released, it comes at a great force at Balamuri and tourists who are on the barrier are dragged downstream that is full of sharp rocks and boulders.

Tourists, who are hugely attracted by the scenic beauty of the waterfall, enter the waters and any negligence while playing in the waters, results in certain death as can be seen in most cases of drowning. With rising temperatures, tourists from places such as Bengaluru, Mysuru, Chamarajanagar and other districts visit the spot in large numbers and take to swimming in the river.

Most of the tourists, especially youth, tend to ignore the warning signs put up by the authorities and go for a swim in the river. Not realising the depth of water, tourists go for a swim when there are high chances of meeting a watery grave. Most of the tourists who have died of drowning at Balamuri and Edamuri are in the age group of 15 to 28 years.

The locals, who are saddened by the loss of lives, have urged the authorities to sensitise the tourists on the risk of taking to swimming at dangerous spots. Although the Police are deployed at Balamuri site to warn the tourists by making repeated announcements through audio systems, tourists tend to ignore the warnings and have their own way.

The authorities on their part have erected huge warning boards at all dangerous points of the river cautioning the public about whirlpools. Banners and flexes containing warnings too have been put up at some spots. But despite all these measures, tourists choose to ignore all advices and go for a swim. Incidentally, most of the youths who have died of drowning are from Bengaluru who arrive here to enjoy weekends and holidays.

In October 2017, Police along with Sri Balamuri Kshetra Devalayagala Abhivruddhi Samithi, had banned entry to Balamuri and that's when the gates were installed. According to the Police, most of the visitors carry alcohol and after downing a couple of pegs, they walk on the concrete barrier that is at times slippery when water is released.

Sri Balamuri Kshetra Devalayagala Abhivruddhi Samithi President Jagadish said that it is disturbing to note that more and more number of tourists, most of them youth, are meeting watery grave at this beautiful spot.

The Committee, in association with the Police, has set up large warning boards, banners, flexes etc., at all dangerous points. Security personnel too have been deployed at the spot to warn and guide the tourists, he said.

In this week's Pet Talk, Maneka gives information about parakeets, parrots and budgerigars

Pet Talk

Maneka Gandhi

My pet parakeet's nares and cere are crusty. What does that mean?

The most common reason for this condition is a mite called Knemidokoptes. This usually appears as a fuzzy or crusty overgrowth of the tissue of the cere (the band of tissue over the beak), around the nares, around the skin of the eyes, around the vent, or on the legs. This condition is usually found in young birds, but may also occur in older birds, as well. It may have a genetic component, or may also be found in birds with a weak immune system. You probably are not either keeping the cage clean, or feeding the bird properly .You need to have a vet look at the bird. If not treated properly, over time, it can result in permanent deformity of the beak or toenails.

One of my parakeet's feet is turning purple. It seems to be getting darker and he is able to support himself with it less and less. He was trying to sleep and kept falling off his food dish. What should I do?

It is so annoying when people keep birds without knowing anything about them. Unfortunately, no vets know anything either. The few people who can diagnose bird diseases in India do it because they are self-taught. If your parakeet's foot was simply slightly more purple than the other foot, and it was not affecting its behaviour, this is just a pigment-related issue.

However, the fact he can't use the foot to stand on means the colouring is probably due to a decrease in circulation. As the circulation becomes worse, or the longer it continues, the more damage will be done to the local area. He may have full use of the limb but no feeling (much like "pins and needles" in humans), and therefore not stand on it, or he may be losing the functionality of the limb. Loss of circulation creates a lack of oxygen supply to the cells in the area, which will eventually lead to necrosis and loss of the limb. You will need to have your bird examined immediately.

My parrot has a yellow lump on its back. The lump seems to be growing bigger, rapidly. What should I do?

Feather cysts are a common skin and feather condition in pet birds. It occurs when a new feather fails to come out and, instead, curls up under the skin, within the feather follicle. As the feather grows, the lump — caused by the ingrown feather — also continues to grow until the feather cyst becomes an oval or long swelling. At times, it can involve one or more feather follicles at a time.

A feather cyst can occur anywhere on the bird's body. In parrots, however, it is commonly seen in the primary feathers of the wing. And although any bird can suffer from feather cysts, it usually occurs in parrots, macaws (blue and gold), and canaries, which usually have multiple feather cysts.

In most birds, feather cysts are caused by an infection or an injury to the feather follicle. Treatment consists of surgically removing the involved feather follicles. If the follicle is just incised and the feather, with its accumulation of keratin, is removed, it will usually recur.

My budgerigar is laying lots of eggs. What do I do?

Female budgies are determinate layers, meaning that she will usually lay a predetermined number of eggs per clutch. If you take her eggs away from her, she may begin another cycle. She will attempt to replace the eggs that, according to her, a predator removed from her nest. This is not good for her health as her calcium will become depleted. For this reason, it is safest and best to leave her eggs in with her, allowing her to attempt to incubate her eggs. Fertile budgie eggs will usually hatch after 18 days of incubation. If not, wait for this period to elapse then you can safely remove the clutch of eggs.

I feel very sorry when I see chickens waiting to be killed in open chicken coops on the road. I really would like to rescue them. What can I do?

You have given the answer yourself. Rescue them! Every chicken coop on the road is illegal. Under FSSAI law, they cannot be kept on an open road. Under the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act, they can't be locked up and killed in front of each other. According to the Municipal Laws, chickens can't be kept in khokhas, or killed in open areas, as this is bad for everyone's health. So, if you use all the laws and keep them with you in writing, you can rescue them.

The next step is where to keep them. If you have a garden at home, make a small shed for them in a corner, put hay in it. Otherwise let them roam around freely. Each chicken has his/ her own personality and they make charming pets. In fact once you get the courage up, you can make a team called Chicken Rescue, inform the Police and clear your town of these khokhas.

I have a new house and six new dogs rescued from a shelter. Any tips on what to use in my house?

Welcome to the world of love, fun, hair-shedding, mud and ticks. Keep very little furniture and that which is easily movable. If you have to have carpets, forget wool and cotton and go for all-synthetic fibres. Natural fibres absorb everything, and that guarantees stains and odours. No shag carpets which provide homes for fleas and ticks. Varied hues of the same colour hide dirt and stains the best.

Use light curtains that are well off the floor. Opt for tightly woven, smooth-surfaced upholstery. Such fabrics will resist a few claw marks and will not encourage furniture-scratching. Anything with a loose or open weave invites cats and dogs to pull at it, fiddle with it, claw or scratch it. You could also use washable slip-covers.

Make use of mats everywhere. Rubber-backed mats of synthetic pile collect dirt and moisture and clean easily. Use them just outside and inside the doors, under dog food dishes and in sleeping areas. You might look at nice car mats.

Brush the dogs every day. Grooming is good for your pet, good for your relationship with your pet and good for the general cleanliness of your home. Set time aside on a regular basis to comb and brush your pet, making a fuss over him as you do so he'll come to love it. Not only will your pet be more attractive and happier for the extra attention, but every piece of fur you snare will spare from your floor or sofa.

Keep Dettol handy. If a dog urinates in the house, then clean and put Dettol on the surface. Dogs generally avoid the place. Otherwise, should the urine smell persist, they will do it again in the same area.

A rare sighting...

Oriental White Eye (Zosterops Palpebrosus) is a tiny greenish yellow bird with a prominent white ring around its eye, thus gaining its name. These are generally seen in a flock of five or more birds actively hunting for tiny insects on the shrubs, bushes and foliage of trees.

They subsist largely on flower nectar and pulp of fruits and berries. Their breeding season is ideally between April and July. They build their nest in the shape of a cup using cobwebs and tiny twigs. Both the male and the female bird share the parenting duties.

Unfortunately, due to rapid urbanisation and loss of habitat, their numbers are decreasing and spotting this bird now in the wild is rare.

MUDA-allotted 'B-Kharab' lands of Kurubarahalli Sy. No. 4 and Alanahalli Sy. No. 41

Lethargy delays implementation of Cabinet Decision

What Siddharamaiah GAVE, Officials refuse to GIVE

Mysuru, July 3 (RK&BCT)- There is a famed adage in Kannada that says "Devaru Kottaroo Pujari Kodalla" (Even if God grants you, the Priest withholds) which suits aptly to the plight of residents of CITB and MUDA Layouts coming under Kurubarahalli Survey No. 4 and Alanahalli Survey No. 41 from 'B-Kharab' (Government land) classification.

Despite the State Cabinet (the highest decision-making body of the State Government) decision to delete 'B-Kharab' classification of MUDA-allotted lands, the lethargic attitude of officialdom and indifferent stance adopted by elected representatives have resulted in suffering of people who have been endlessly running from pillar to post to get their legal lands regularised.

Cabinet issues orders in Sept. 2018

The Chief Minister's Office (CMO), vide its letter No. CM/52430/REP-4EM/2018 dated Sept. 17, 2018, directed the MUDA Commissioner to take further action in respect of the previous Siddharamaiah Government's Cabinet decision on leaving out Siddarthanagar under Kurubarahalli Sy. No. 4 and Alanahalli, K.C. Nagar, J.C. Nagar and Income Tax Layouts coming under Alanahalli Sy. No. 41 from 'B-Kharab' classification.

Letter sent to Revenue Department

The letter, signed by CM's Deputy Secretary Arun Furtado, was then forwarded to the Revenue Department (that comes under Mysuru Deputy Commissioner) as the issue is wholly connected to Revenue Department. According to the DC, since the Cabinet had taken a decision in this regard, he must get a Government Order (GO) from the Revenue Secretary to implement the Cabinet decision. Since he has not so far received any GO in this regard from the Revenue Secretary, he cannot implement Siddharamaiah's Cabinet decision.

Although nine months have passed since the Cabinet decision, the authorities have not shown any interest on implementing the Cabinet decision — a reflection on the lack of sympathy to the years of suffering and pain of nearly 25,000 people living in these Layouts.

The letter, signed by CM's Deputy Secretary Arun Furtado, was then forwarded to the Revenue Department (that comes under Mysuru Deputy Commissioner) as the issue is wholly connected to Revenue Department. According to the DC, since the Cabinet had taken a decision in this regard, he must get a Government Order (GO) from the Revenue Secretary to implement the Cabinet decision. Although nine months have passed since the Cabinet decision, the authorities have not shown any interest on implementing the Cabinet decision — a reflection on the lack of sympathy to the years of suffering and pain of nearly 25,000 people living in these Layouts.

'B-Kharab' ordered in 2015

The District Administration, in May 2015, had classified the land coming under the said survey numbers as 'B-Kharab' following which the MUDA and the MCC had stopped issuing land records such as Khata transfer, building plan approval, CR etc., of sites and other landed properties in CITB (now MUDA) developed Layouts of Siddarthanagar, Vidyanagar, K.C. Nagar, J.C. Nagar, Alanahalli and Income Tax Layouts coming under the two Survey Numbers.

A total of 710.17 acres out of 1,543 acres has been declared as 'B-Kharab' in Kurubarahalli Sy. No.4 and 74 acres out of 175 acres has been declared as 'B-Kharab' in Alanahalli Sy. No.41. These lands were taken over by CITB (City Improvement Trust Board), now MUDA 70 years back to form Layouts.

Residents paying taxes since 35 years

The CITB had distributed the sites through public auction and the residents have been paying taxes since the past 35 years. Now all of a sudden, the land has been classified as 'B-Kharab and this action has caused a lot of hardship to residents and property owners in these Layouts as they cannot do any property transactions and many people have died as they could not fulfil their family commitments by selling the land.

File with Revenue Department

Yesterday too during the whirlwind tour of the city by District Minister G.T. Devegowda, BJP National Council Member and former KEA Chairman B.P. Manjunath asked him why in spite of the Cabinet decision, the Government had still not taken a decision. Responding to Manjunath, Devegowda spoke to Revenue Department Principal Secretary Rajkumar Khatri, who said that he had sent the file to Revenue Minister R.V. Deshpande and the matter will be solved within a month.

MLAs Tanveer Sait, S.A. Ramdas, L. Nagendra, MUDA Chairman H.N. Vijay, Mayor Pushpalatha Jagannath, Deputy Mayor Shafi Ahmed, Deputy Commissioner Abhiram G. Sankar, Additional Deputy Commissioner B.R. Poornima, MUDA Chairman P.S. Kantharaj and others accompanied the District Minister.

'Wake up Revenue Secretary, please!'

Somashekar Ramdas

Mysuru, July 3- As the State Cabinet has already taken a decision to delete 'B-Kharab' classification of MUDA-allotted Layouts from Kurubarahalli Survey No. 4 and Alanahalli Survey No. 41 and the Karnataka High Court has already been informed about the Cabinet decision by the State Advocate General Udaya Holla, the Revenue Secretary has to just pass a Government Order (GO) in this regard and send it to the Mysuru Deputy Commissioner to delete the 'B-Kharab' classification.

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, former MLA M.K. Somashekar said that the Revenue Secretary has to issue the GO that will solve the entire issue. "Due to pressure exerted by the residents when I was the MLA for Krishnaraja (KR) Constituency, the Siddharamaiah Government took a Cabinet decision. Now all the hurdles have been cleared and the Revenue Secretary has to issue the GO," he said.

When SOM contacted the present KR Constituency MLA S.A. Ramdas, he said that he would follow up on the issue. "I have already posted a person in Vidhana Soudha to follow up the papers and get the Revenue Secretary to issue the GO. Give me two days and I will get back on the issue," he said. — KBG

Industrialist arrested for GST fraud in city

Mysuru, July 3 (MTY&DM)- A city-based industrialist has been arrested by the GST (Goods & Services Tax) authorities on charges of tax fraud this morning.

Anil Mehra, 59, proprietor of Spectra Pipes in Hootagalli Industrial Area, is the one who is arrested. Anil Mehra is said to have earned an Input Tax Credit of Rs. 7.5 crore, by submitting fake invoices of purchasing raw materials worth Rs. 40 crore. After getting the Rs.7.5 crore Input Tax Credit, Mehra is alleged to have fraudulently used this credit for despatching finished materials to buyers, in gross violation of GST rules and regulations.

Following a tip off, a team of GST officials led by Additional Commissioner Y.C.S. Swamy and comprising Superintendents Bopanna, M.G. Krishnan and Gururaj, raided Spectra Pipes this morning, when the fraudulent means of GST tax evasion was unearthed, following which Anil Mehra was arrested.

Mehra was taken to K.R. Hospital and Jayadeva Cardiology Hospital for a medical check up. He will be produced before a City Court later this afternoon, when the GST authorities will seek his custody for about 10 days for further investigation, according to sources.

Vishwanath meets BJP MPs in Delhi

MLA A.H. Vishwanath in discussion with MP G.S. Basavaraj at Karnataka Bhavan in New Delhi this morning. [Pic. by M.M. Joshi]

New Delhi, July 3 (MMJ)- Even as the JD(S)-Congress coalition Government in Karnataka is on a shaky wicket with the resignation of two Congress MLAs, senior JD(S) leader and MLA A.H. Vishwanath had a breakfast meeting with a couple of BJP MPs from the State at Karnataka Bhavan here this morning.

Vishwanath, who had left Bengaluru four-days ago on a pilgrimage to Bihar and Assam, landed in New Delhi late last night after offering prayers at the famous Kamakhya Temple in Guwahati, Assam yesterday.

This morning, Vishwanath met BJP MPs G.S. Basavaraju (Tumakuru) and B.Y. Raghavendra (Shivamogga) over a breakfast at Karnataka Bhavan, thus giving rise to speculations about him joining the BJP.

Vishwanath scotches speculations

Later speaking to press persons at Karnataka Bhavan this morning, Vishwanath scotched rumours of his joining the BJP and said that he would inform the media well in advance if he were to join the BJP.

Maintaining that there was nothing wrong to talk about politics with leaders of other parties, Vishwanath observed that Karnataka politics was deteriorating.

Stating that there was lack of co-ordination between the leaders of the coalition partners, Vishwanath said it appears that the Co-ordination Committee Head and CLP leader Siddharamaiah is not too interested in the continuation of the coalition Government, while at the same time the Congress High Command wants the coalition to continue.

Reiterating that no special significance must be attached to his meeting with BJP MPs, Vishwanath, who quit as Karnataka JD(S) President recently, refused to comment on the resignation of two Congress MLAs.

Vishwanath lashed out at Siddharamaiah saying that the CLP leader was more interested in functioning as the Opposition leader, rather than working for better co-ordination between the coalition partners.

Directly links Ring Road

The road and bridge works were sanctioned due to the efforts of Tanveer Sait. The road is adjacent to the Railway track and connects the Goods Shed directly to the Ring Road. Now the Railways, claiming ownership of the land, has blocked the movement on the road by dumping mud and construction debris. If this road is cleared, truckers can directly enter the Goods Shed from the Ring Road without using the Jodi Thenginamara Road.

More than 800 trucks transport goods from the trains to different parts of the region and if two goods trains come to the Goods Shed, there is a requirement of 1,800 trucks. As the Railways have blocked the road, all these trucks take the Jodi Thenginamara Road.

Railways cite safety issue

Realising this, the Mysuru Urban Development Authority had taken up the road works between the Goods Shed and the Ring Road worth Rs. 15 crore but the Railways has refused to part with the land. The 800-metre road works include 400-metre stretch near old Ideal Java factory near the Railway under bridge and 400-metre stretch near Karakushalanagar. These stretches have been blocked by the Railways.

The Railways has stated that new road cannot be made as it will come close to the Railway track and trespass cannot be permitted near the track. "Heavy movement of trucks is a safety issue. The present road arrangement is functioning smoothly from Goods Shed area side. Hence in view of safety, the new road cannot be made," Railways had stated in the past.

Truckers' version

The Hazrath Gumnam Shahwali Dargah Road was developed with a cost of Rs.16 crore due to the efforts of Tanveer Sait. The road was developed and a new bridge has been constructed for connectivity exclusively for the movement of trucks. A mountain near the Dargah was also partly cleared to facilitate the road construction. Despite all these efforts, the Railways have not budged and have refused to clear the road, say truckers.

More than 10 meetings

"More than 10 meetings have taken place with the Railway authorities. Even Pratap Simha has been apprised about the issue. The road was planned in 2009-10 when H.S. Shankaralingegowda was the Chamaraja MLA and later in 2015, the then CM Siddharamaiah had performed the Guddali Puja on April 7 that year. The Guddali Puja was attended by Star of Mysore Editor-in-Chief K.B. Ganapathy, the then MLA Vasu and the then Mysuru Railway Divisional Railway Manager Rajkumar Lal. Still the issue has not been settled till now" Tanveer Sait regretted.

Railways adopting double standards: MLA

"The argument of Railways that there must not be any movement within 100 metres of the Railway track is unreasonable and illogical as there are houses just beside the tracks at Brindavan Extension in Mysuru, Mandya, Channapattana and Ramanagaram. As we enter Bengaluru, we find houses very close to the tracks. The Railways is adopting double standards," he alleged.

Tanveer Sait said that many times, Pratap Simha was urged to solve this problem but he has not shown interest. "Our MP has good contacts in the Railways and if he minds, he can get the road cleared by using his good offices. He has to have the will power to solve this long-pending issue," Sait said.

India slides to semis by defeating Bangladesh

The leading run-scorer in the World Cup with 544 runs, Rohit Sharma poses with the 'Player of the Match' memento. Picture right shows Jasprit Bumrah, who exhibited brilliant death bowling against Bangladesh on Tuesday, celebrating a wicket.

Edgbaston, July 3- India entered the semi-finals in the World Cup 2019, with a spectacular 28-run win over a fighting Bangladesh team with excellent performance by Rohit Sharma who scored a century and brilliant death bowling by Jasprit Bumrah at Edgbaston on Thursday.

Bangladesh became the fifth team to be eliminated from this edition of the World Cup, but they can go out with their heads high as they fought till the last.

India off to great start

Indian openers Rohit Sharma 104 (92b, 7x4, 5x6) and K.L. Rahul 77 (92b, 6x4, 1x6) were in awesome touch and batted with ease and negotiated the Bangladesh attack well to give their team an excellent start by adding 180-runs for the opening wicket which enabled India to put up a decent par score batting first. The partnership was the highest opening wicket partnership for India in World Cups.

Rohit Sharma became the leading run-scorer in the World Cup with 544 runs. Rohit Sharma dropped early in his innings, played an outstanding knock by scoring his fourth hundred in the World Cup.

Rohit departed caught by Liton Das off Soumya Sarkar (180 for one). Rahul and skipper Virat Kohli consolidated the innings, but Rahul was the next to go, caught behind by Rahim off Rubel (195 for two). Rishabh Pant (48, 41b, 6x4, 1x6) batted with freedom and added 42-runs with Kohli (26, 27b, 5x4).

India lost Kohli caught by Ruble off Mustafizur Rahman (237 for five in 38.2 overs). India lost it's way a bit by losing Hardik Pandya (0), Rishabh Pant (48) and Dinesh Karthik (8) quickly and were reduced to 298 for six in 47.2 overs. M.S. Dhoni 35 (33b, 4x4) batted well but some good bowling by fast bowler Mustafizur Rahman (five for 59) enabled Bangladesh to restrict India to 314 for nine in 50 overs.

Fighting reply by Bangladesh

Bangladesh, needing 315 to win, started well with openers Tamim Iqbal (22, 31b, 3x4) and Soumya Sarkar 33 (38b, 4x4) adding 39-runs for the opening wicket. Tamim Iqbal departed bowled by Shami and India got the needed break-through.

Shakib Al Hasan, Bangladesh's leading run-getter in this World Cup, batted well to score a valuable 66 (74b, 6x4) and added 35-runs for the second wicket with Soumya Sarkar and further added 47-runs for the third wicket with Musfiqur Rahim 24 (23b, 3x4).

Bangladesh lost Soumya Sarkar and Rahim quickly and were reduced to 121 for three in 22.6 overs. Liton Das (22, 24b, 1x6), Mosaddek Hossain (3) and Shakib Al Hasan (66) were removed by Hardik Pandya and Yuzvendra Chahal respectively and Bangladesh were reduced to 179 for six in 33.5 overs.

Sabbir Rahman 36 (36b, 5x4) and Saifuddin 51 n.o. (38b, 9x4) revived Bangladesh's hopes and batting boldly added 66-runs for the seventh wicket, before Jasprit Bumrah bowled Sabbir (245 for seven in 43.1 overs).

The tail of Bangladesh did not wag much and Bangladesh were bowled out for 286 in 48 overs. India won by a margin of 28-runs. Jasprit Bumrah (four for 55) was well supported by Hardik Pandya who took three for 60.

Australia leads the points table with 14 points, followed by India with 13 points. New Zealand is in the third place with 11 points and hosts England is in the fourth place with 10 points. Bangladesh have 7 points from eight games. Rohit Sharma was chosen as 'Player of the Match.'

Doctors' life expectancy at stake due to stress

Medical Superintendent of Jayadeva Institute expresses concern

Dr. K.S. Sadananda, Medical Superintendent of Jayadeva Institute of Cardiovascular Sciences, Mysuru, cutting the cake to mark Doctors' Day celebrations at the Hospital premises on July 1.

Mysuru, July 3 (PM&SD)- "Nowadays, doctors are under a lot of stress and hence their life expectancy is five years less than that of general population," opined Dr. K.S. Sadananda, Medical Superintendent, Jayadeva Institute of Cardiovascular Sciences, KRS Road here.

He was speaking after inaugurating National Doctors' Day celebrations organised at Jayadeva Institute on July 1. "Today, doctors are becoming victims of aggression. People should understand the fact that even doctors are human beings. Just 5 percent of doctors might show neglect on their part, but majority of doctors are honest and cognisant of their responsibilities while treating patients. Just because of a few of those culprits, public should not generalise and cultivate feelings of dubiety and exhibit hostility in a fit of rage which will in turn affect our morale," he added.

"In this age of Science, medical expenses are very high and there is no use blaming doctors alone for this problem. In fact, doctors in our country work almost twice the number of hours than their counterparts in foreign countries. Nowadays, medical tourism is thriving because of the affordable cost of treatment available here. Many talented doctors are working overseas and are earning very well there," he added.

"Over the last 10 years, under the guidance of Dr. C.N. Manjunath, Jayadeva Institute of Cardiovascular Sciences is providing excellent service to patients. We have many doctors of international fame working here," he said.

'There are more snake rescuers than snakes in Bengaluru'

Mysuru, July 3 (MTY&KS)- There are more snake rescuers than the population of snakes in Bengaluru, said snake conservation expert Sumanth.

He was speaking at the workshop organised for snake rescuers at the Mysuru Zoo auditorium in city yesterday.

Continuing, he said that there is information that a few snake rescuers were receiving Rs.4,000 to Rs.8,000 for catching a snake and added that in a bid to earn money they were releasing the snakes they had caught in one locality to another locality and demanding money to catch them.

Sumanth further said that there were 10 lakh snake bite incidents reported in the country in a year out of which 40,000 to 50,000 persons die of snake bites and 1.5 lakh to 2 lakh persons are losing their hands and legs. More number of farmers and construction workers are the victims of snake bites, he said and added that there is a need to create awareness in this regard.

He further said that a snake rescuer, after rescuing a snake, should provide information about it to the public and not just catch the snake within minutes and come back. Stating that there are picture messages of snakes with three, five and seven hoods, snakes take revenge in 12 years which are doing rounds in the social media are false, Sumanth said that they were sending wrong messages to the public.

He added that there are a few snakes which do not drink milk and snakes prefer to stay away from human beings. When snakes feel that there is a threat to them, they make loud hissing sounds as warning and as a last resort they bite and in a few bite incidents the venom is not released, he explained.

Earlier, Zoo Authority of Karnataka (ZAK) Member-Secretary B.P. Ravi, who spoke, said that the snake rescuers should take precautions while rescuing a snake and should also take steps to create awareness about the myths surrounding the snake.

He emphasised on framing a syllabus, followed by training to amateurs and issue certificates to successful candidates besides distributing honorarium to them.

B.P. Ravi advised the rescuers to develop a dedicated website on snakes and share the information on social media platforms as it would enrich the knowledge of other snake rescuers.

Mysuru Zoo Executive Director Ajit M. Kulkarni, speaking on the occasion, said that humans are creating problems to snakes because of wrong information and superstitious beliefs and added that in order to hone the skills of snake rescuers and provide more information about snakes and how to handle them, this workshop has been organised.

City's well-known snake rescuer and wildlife conservationist Snake Shyam, in his advice to snake rescuers, said that a snake rescuer should first identify the spot the snake is hiding, check whether the snake is injured and then take steps to rescue it. Though a snake rescuer has caught 100 or 1,000 snakes, he should take precautions every time the way he had taken while rescuing his first snake, he said.

Identification of snakes is very important and snake rescuers should be able to differentiate between venomous and non-venomous snakes and should share the information about snakes and its importance in the eco-system to the public whenever they rescue a snake. Stating that any snake rescuer, who first arrives at the spot where snake was sighted, should rescue the snake, Shyam said that other rescuers should not indulge in fight with them stating that it is their area, as rescuing the snake should be their priority.

Snake conservation expert Gerry Martin and others held a demo on handling snakes. Over 80 snake rescuers from Mysuru, Mandya, Chamarajanagar, Kodagu, Hassan, Tumakuru and other places took part in the workshop.

WORD OF THE DAY

Banshee

Pronunciation: BAN-shee.
Meaning: A female spirit in Gaelic folklore whose appearance or wailing warns a family that one of them will soon die.
Origin: In Irish folklore, a bean sídhe (literally "woman of fairyland") was not a welcome guest. When she was seen combing her hair or heard wailing beneath a window, it was considered a sign that a family member was about to die. English speakers modified the mournful fairy's Irish name into the modern word banshee—a term we now most often use to evoke her woeful or terrible or earsplitting cry, as in "to scream like a banshee," or attributively, as in "a banshee wail."
Example: The family is reputed to have its own banshee that howls when one of them is going to die. Corran remembered that on receiving reports that the banshee had been heard, telegrams were sent to everyone in family to find out if they were all right. — The Daily Telegraph (London), 16 July 2018

THE ODD WORD

Bosie

A person's bosom.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Bang on about

Meaning: Talk repetitively and boringly about something.

Origin: The term 'bang on' has been used to mean either 'exactly on', that is, physically close to, or 'exactly right'. Those two meaning are exemplified here, respectively:
An advertisement in Punch April 1936: "Quiet garden square near Hyde Park. Real hot water. Bang on Tubes."
('Bang on Tubes' means 'very close to an Underground station'. 'Real hot water' - who knows? Better than imaginary hot water I suppose.)
John Hunt and Alan Pringle Service Slang, 1943: "Bang on, bomber slang for 'O.K.' or 'Everything's all right'." These derive from an earlier American usage of simply 'bang', meaning 'exactly'.
'Bang on about' has a different meaning though and doesn't appear to be related to either of the above. It is a British coinage.
The Economist, October 1979: "Mr. Patrick Jenkin - Social Services - In cabinet tries hard but is inclined to bang on a bit."
Julie Burchill, Sex & Sensibility, 1990: "This cry was taken up by the alt coms [alternative comedians] - Benny and Jenny and Lenny and Dawn - who would bang on about Reagan being an actor."

QUOTE BOX

When I get in the studio the idea is just to work and bang out as many as I can. — Pitbull
